

SCASN Recognition Award Nomination Form

SCASN Recognition Awards – Check Appropriate Award Nomination

Recognition Awards

1. To recognize organizations or individuals who have continually supported or uniquely contributed to SCASN, school nursing or school health services nationally in at least the last five years.
2. To recognize an individual who has given outstanding service to SCASN within the last 5 years.

Award Criteria:

- The proposed candidate must meet one of the above objectives.
- Data substantiating the objectives must accompany the nomination of the candidate.
- Example: Descriptions
 - (1) Outstanding services to SCASN, special project(s), programs for school nursing/child health and
 - (2) Describe how SCASN benefited.
- Officers, Board of Directors, and SCASN members will be asked submit candidates to the SCASN Vice President.
- Current Executive Committee members are not eligible to receive an award except for the President's Recognition Award.
- If a corporation is nominated to receive this award, then one person must be selected to appropriately represent the corporation and accept the award for the exemplary contributions of the corporation.

Media Journalist Award

1. To recognize an individual or news service that has supported or uniquely contributed to SCASN, school nursing, or school health services through the media in the past year.
2. To recognize writers who effectively give audiences a greater awareness and understanding of the importance and value of school nursing through the media.

Award Selection Criteria

- Story content is accurate, relevant, and creative.
- Storyline has a positive major impact on public opinion or policy.
- Storyline has made school health issues relevant to new audiences.
- Storyline shows careful research and balanced fair reporting.

Lillian Wald Award

1. To recognize a legislator or public policy official who has supported or uniquely contributed to SCASN, school nursing, or school health services.

Award Selection Criteria

- The individual has effectively advanced legislation or public policy during the past year in areas of importance to school nursing.
- The committee may choose more than one recipient for the recognition awards if it is determined that two or more candidates of equal merit.

SCASN Recognition Award Nomination Form

ALL AWARDS MUST BE SUBMITTED TO SCASN BY FEBRUARY 1, EXCEPT THE LILLIAN WALD AWARD IS DUE NOVEMBER 1.

Award Nominee:

Award:

Nominator Information:

Name:

Address:

City, State, Zip Code

Organization:

Email:

Phone home:

Cellphone:

1. Description of outstanding service, special projects, programs for nursing/school health, financial or other unique contribution to SCASN based on description of award. Include data to substantiate contributions. (250 words max).

2. Description of benefit to SCASN. Include data to substantiate benefit. (250 word max).

Submit to SCASN. Form must be submitted electronically to scasn@scasn.org by February 1.

Lillian Wald Award is due November 1.